

ALEJANDRO ARAUJO

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Alejandro Araujo specializes in mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, project finance, capital markets and general corporate and commercial law.

Education

Universidad de Lima – Lawyer with distinction
summa cum laude (2017)
Stanford Law School – LL.M.
Corporate Governance &
Practice (2023)

Practice Areas

Mergers & Acquisitions
Banking and Finance
Project Finance
Capital Markets

Memberships

Lima Bar Association

Languages

Spanish
English

He advises domestic and foreign companies in the structuring and negotiation of mergers and acquisitions, project finance transactions, corporate financing, financing in the stock market, and corporate reorganizations.

Alejandro also advises sponsors, financial institutions, multilateral entities and companies in corporate, bilateral and syndicated financing, structured financing, project financing and transactions in the capital markets for various industries.

He has extensive experience advising buyers, sellers, targets, financial advisors, financiers and others in local and international mergers and acquisitions.

Alejandro has been an international associate at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP in New York (2023-2024), working on capital markets transactions, restructurings, financing and M&A transactions.

He has been assistant professor of the Commercial Law course at Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (2015) and adjunct professor of the Corporate Finance course at Universidad de Lima (2018-2021).