

ALFONSO MONTOYA

PARTNER

PROFILE

Alfonso Montoya specializes in providing commercial and corporate advisory to companies.

He counsels on corporate and financial issues, focusing on extractive companies and on designing contractual structures design for the development of exploration and exploitation activities.

Alfonso is Professor of Corporate Law at the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú since 1999, as well as at Universidad del Pacífico. Additionally, he is member of the commission to reform the current General Corporations law.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer (1998) Yale Law School – Master in Law (2002)

Practice Areas

Corporate and Commercial
Mining Law

Memberships

Callao Bar Association
Civil Association Ius et Veritas

Languages

Spanish
English