

ANDREA MADUEÑO

COUNSEL

PROFILE

Andrea Madueño specializes in tax advice on financial, M&A, international taxation, double taxation agreements and investment tax planning in Peru and abroad.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer (2001)
Pace University School of Law, Nueva York – Master in Environmental Law (2006)
Wallace Tax Scholarship (2005-2006)
International Tax Center Leiden (Leiden, The Netherlands) – Courses on international taxation and double tax treaties (2021)

Practice Areas

Tax

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Peruvian Institute of Tax Law
International Fiscal Association (IFA) – Peruvian Group

Languages

Spanish
English

She has participated in the tax planning and structuring of local and international corporate reorganizations, as well as in transactions for the acquisition and transfer of business.

She has extensive experience in financing operations for the development of investment and infrastructure projects, and in capital market operations, including bond issues and other debt instruments at a local and international level.