

CARLOS QUISPE

CONSULTANT

PROFILE

Carlos Quispe specializes in labor litigations.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer (1996)
Master's Degree in Constitutional Law (2010)
Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos – Master's Degree in Human Resources Direction (2008)
International Training Centre of the ILO, Turin, Italy - Diploma Course in Professional Training and Safety and Health at Work (2000 and 2002)
Universidad Complutense de Madrid – Diploma Course in Strategic Management of Human Resources (2003)
European Institute of Industrial Relations - International University of Andalusia 9th Advanced Course in Labor Law for Graduates (2017)

Practice Areas

Labor

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Peruvian Society of Labor Law and Social Security

Languages

Spanish
English

His practice on labor and employment dispute resolutions and designing strategies and defense in labor claims, as well as constitutional and administrative labor process.

He has served as Chief Judge of the Superior Court of Justice of Lima (2003-2013) and as Deputy Director in the Ministry of Labor and Employment Promotion (1999-2003).

Carlos is Professor of the Master's Program in Labor Law at the University of San Martín de Porres and lecturer at diploma and specialization courses in labor matters. He regularly publishes articles in legal journals.