

CLAUDIO FERRERO

PARTNER

PROFILE

Claudio Ferrero specializes in transactional mining matters, mergers & acquisitions.

Education

Universidad de Lima – Lawyer,
magna cum laude (2005)
Harvard Law School – Master in Law
(2012)

Practice Areas

Corporate and Commercial
Project Finance
Mergers & Acquisitions
Mining

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Civil Association ADV Editores –
Advocatus Magazine
Harvard Club of Peru

Languages

Spanish
English

He has extensive experience negotiating and structuring mergers & acquisitions, financing, due diligence of companies and mining projects, option contracts, joint ventures, streaming and shareholder agreements. He provides general corporate advice.

Claudio negotiates and designs corporate structures to reconcile contractual, tax and economic perspectives and needs. He has experience in obtaining permits and administrative licenses, including the negotiation and closing of several agreements with local communities to allow the operation of mining projects. He has been involved in privatization processes, stability contracts and foreign investment.

He has been a visiting lawyer at Debevoise & Plimpton LLP in New York (2013-2014). He was teaching assistant of the Mining Law course at Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (2010-2011) and intern at the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights in Washington D.C. (2003). He was assigned as in-house counsel of Las Bambas Mining Company S.A. (2014).