

CLAUDIO FERRERO

PARTNER

PROFILE

Claudio Ferrero specializes in transactional mining matters, and mergers & acquisitions.

Education

Universidad de Lima - Lawyer,
magna cum laude (2005)
Harvard Law School – Master in Law (2012)

Practice Areas

Corporate and Commercial
Project Finance
Mergers & Acquisitions
Mining

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Civil Association ADV Editores –
Advocatus Magazine
Harvard Club of Peru

Languages

Spanish
English

He has extensive experience negotiating and structuring mergers & acquisitions, financing, due diligence for companies and mining projects, option contracts, joint ventures, streaming and shareholders agreements. He provides general corporate advice.

He negotiates and designs corporate structures to conciliate perspectives and contractual, tax and economic needs as well as experience in obtaining permits and administrative licenses, including negotiating and closing various agreements with local communities to allow the operation of mining projects. He has been involved in privatization processes, stability contracts and foreign investment.

Claudio has been a visiting lawyer at Debevoise & Plimpton LLP in New York (2013-2014) and assistant professor in Mining Law of Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (2010-2011) and intern at the Inter-American Human Rights Commission in Washington D.C. (2003). He was appointed as internal attorney of Las Bambas Mining Company S.A. (2014).