

DANIEL DE LA VEGA

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Daniel De la Vega specializes in labor law consultancy with an emphasis on consulting and contentious processes.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer with outstanding mention (2005)
Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Specialization in Labor and Social Security Law (2010)
Universidad del Pacífico Strategic Management of labor and community relations (current)

Practice Areas

Labor

Memberships

Lima Bar Association

Languages

Spanish
English

He has advised and led collective negotiations for several companies in the mining and energy sector.

He provides consulting services and permanent coordination to human resources managers to elaborate and implement plans and strategies for labor relations in general. He also counsels in developing and implementing process strategies, as well as in the defense and oral litigation in labor processes and/or administrative labor procedures.

Daniel is a speaker and panelist in courses, conferences and seminars related to labor issues, and a collaborator in different projects and research works.