

EDUARDO LÓPEZ

PARTNER

PROFILE

Eduardo López specializes in banking and finance law, corporate finance, and mergers & acquisitions.

Education

Universidad de Lima – Lawyer,
summa cum laude (1998)
Harvard Law School LL.M. in Comparative Corporate Law,
Finance and Governability (2002)
University of Cambridge England
– LL.M. in Commercial Law (2001)
British Council Chevening
Scholarship

Practice Areas

Banking and Finance
Project Finance
Mergers & Acquisitions
Capital Markets
Venture Capital, Technology and Entrepreneurship

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Callao Bar Association
New York Bar Association
Harvard Club of Peru

Languages

Spanish
English

He counsels on corporate and financial operations, both local and international, mergers & acquisitions, corporate finances, capital markets, corporate and projects finance, risk capital and derivatives.

He counsels Peruvian assets and companies' acquisition, directly or through the public takeover bid procedures, as well as stockholders on selling controlling packets in Peruvian private and publically listed companies.

He has participated in various issuances and public placings of transferable securities, including stocks, bonds and commercial papers, representing both issuers and structurers. He has also participated in corporate financing, structured, syndicated, financial leasing and infrastructure projects, representing both banks and companies and sponsors.

Eduardo was international associate for the New York Office of White & Case, participating in different international transactions. He has been included among the 20 leading attorneys under 40 years old in the Latin Lawyer magazine.

He currently teaches Corporate Finance at Universidad de Lima.