

JOSÉ BALTA

PARTNER

PROFILE

José Balta leads our Labor group, and specializes in advising national and foreign companies on labor matters.

He counsels on collective negotiations and provides general advisory to companies on employment contracting and termination processes. He also advises foreign citizens to obtain residence in Peru.

He participates in labor inspections and the most important judicial procedures in Peru on his area of expertise.

José has been professor of Labor Law at the Law School of the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú since 1996. He has published several articles, as well as the book Acoso sexual en las relaciones laborales privadas (Sexual harassment in private labor relations) (ARA Editores, 2005).

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer (1990)
Cornell University, NY – Master of Professional Studies (Industrial and Labor Relations)
Fullbright Scholarship (1994)

Practice Areas

Labor

Memberships

Lima Bar Association

Languages

Spanish
English