

JULIO GUADALUPE

PARTNER

PROFILE

Julio Guadalupe leads our International Trade and Customs practice group.

Education

Universidad de Lima
–Lawyer (1995)
Escuela Nacional de Aduanas
–Customs Agent (2002)

Practice Areas

International Trade and Customs

Memberships

International Trade Guild of the
Lima Chamber of Commerce
Peruvian Academy of Customs
Law and International Trade
International Customs Law
Academy

Languages

Spanish
English

He provides consulting, planning and preventive auditing services in customs and foreign trade matters. He sponsors contentious proceedings in customs and foreign trade matters before the administrative authority and the Judiciary.

Julio is Past-President and director of the Peruvian Association of Customs Law and International Trade and was a consultant of the Peruvian State for the elaboration of the current General Customs Law.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Foreign Trade Association (XCOM) and has been President of the logistics sector of the XCOM Association of the Lima Chamber of Commerce. He is also a member of the International Academy of Customs Law, frequent lecturer in local and international forums and author of several works and articles specialized in customs and foreign trade matters.

Julio has been recognized as a leading lawyer in his specialty by prestigious international publications such as Chambers & Partners, Who's Who Legal and Legal 500.