

LUCÍA RODRIGO

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Lucía Rodrigo specializes in tax law, mainly in consulting and planning. Specifically, she advises clients on financial transactions, international taxation and digital services.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica
del Perú – Lawyer (2019)

Practice Areas

Tax
Wealth Management

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Themis - Law Review
WIP Peru

Languages

Spanish
English
French

She is part of the Wealth Planning Area and counsels individuals on tax issues applicable to their national and foreign investments, as well as in the design of the most appropriate structures to protect their assets in compliance with the regulations in force.

Lucía obtained the first place in her Law graduation from Pontifical Catholic University of Peru and, in 2019, she received the award for having obtained the Best Weighted Average in the 100 years of history of the Law School.

She has been a teaching assistant for the courses of "Public Limited Companies" (2020), "Seminar of Civil Law and Civil Procedural Law" (2020) and "Property, Institutional Design and Social Justice" (2020) at Pontifical Catholic University of Peru and teaching assistant for the course "Real Rights" at the same University (2014-2015).

In 2020, Lucía was a presenter in the webinar "Covid-19: the 'new normal' in taxes and private wealth" of the IBA's "New Era of Taxation Conference".