

MARIANA DELGADO

PARTNER

PROFILE

Mariana Delgado specializes in mining law and environmental law.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica
del Perú – Lawyer (2010)
Pace University School of Law,
Nueva York – Master in Environmental Law (2015)

Practice Areas

Environmental Mining Law

Memberships

Callao Bar Association
Themis Civil Association –
Journal of Law

Languages

Spanish
English
Italian

She counsels public and private companies, both national and foreign, and state agencies on natural resources issues, as well as permitting and approval of environmental management instruments for mining and natural resources activities. She also counsels on legal audit processes on environmental and mining matters.

Mariana has been an International Lawyer at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP in New York.