

MARIO PASCO

PARTNER

PROFILE

Mario Pasco specializes in advising companies on labor matters and has extensive experience on union negotiation.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer (1996)
József Attila University, Szeged, Hungary – International Seminar on Labor Law, Industrial Relations and Compared Social Security (1993)
Summer School on Industrial Relations and Labour Law, SINEA, Bologna, Italy (1992)

Practice Areas

Labor
Litigation and Arbitration

Memberships

Lima Bar Association
Peruvian Society for Labor and Social Security Law

Languages

Spanish
English

He counsels companies on contracting national and foreign personnel, social security issues, labor costs reduction, compensations planning, termination of employment. He also provides advisory on inspection and audit processes, as well as administrative and judicial procedures related to his specialty. He also assists our clients by answering labor inquiries.

Mario has been appointed Secretary of Trust of the Constitutional Court of the Supreme Court. He chairs the Labor Committee of the Lima Chamber of Commerce, of which he has also been Director, and has been professor of Collective Labor law at Universidad del Pacífico.