

MARITZA REÁTEGUI

PARTNER

PROFILE

Maritza Reátegui heads our Life Sciences & Healthcare practice area.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú
Lawyer summa cum laude (1995)
Universidad Nacional Mayor de
San Marcos – Diploma Course in Pharmaceutical Regulatory Affairs of the School of Pharmacy (2008)
Universidad de Lima – Master in Business Law (2010)
Yale School of Management
Management Program for Lawyers (2014)
Universidad Austral – Internship in Intellectual Property, Life
Sciences and Pharmaceutical
Sector (2017)
CENTRUM PUCP – Women CEO
Program (2019)
INCAE -Women Executive
Leadership (2020)

Practice Areas

Life Sciences & Healthcare
Intellectual Property

Membership

Lima Bar Association
Peruvian Association of Industrial
Property (APPI)
President of the Amcham
Health Committee
Executive Forum

Languages

Spanish
English

She counsels on pharmaceutical and biotechnology matters, such as cosmetics and healthcare products, medical devices, natural products, cannabis, food and beverages, and agrochemical industries.

She represents clients on proceedings and strategy design for sanitary registry filing and protection, data protection of trial, clinical studies, right to petition and sanction process before administrative authorities such as Input and Drug Agency (DIGEMID); General Environmental Health Agency (DIGESA); National Service for Agricultural Health (SENASA); and National Health Institute (INS).

She is consultant for the Inter-American Development Bank on sanitary regulation issues.

Maritza is director of the Master's Program in Intellectual Property major in Pharmaceutical Law of the Graduate School of Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia.

She teaches at different universities in Peru, Mexico and Argentina on Life Sciences and Intellectual Property topics. She also teaches the Intellectual Property Trainers Course by the World Intellectual Property Organization – WIPO.