

URSULA BEN-HAMMOU

COUNSEL

PROFILE

Ursula Ben-Hammou is a corporate attorney and leads our Communications and Institutional Relations department, as well as our Diversity Committee.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Lawyer (2007)
Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Diploma in Socio-Environmental Conflict Analysis, Management and Resolution (2008)
London School of Economics and Political Science – Master in Law with specialization in International Transactions (2009)

Practice Areas

Corporate and Commercial

Memberships

Callao Bar Association
Themis Civil Association –
Journal Law Review

Languages

Spanish
English
French

As a lawyer, she specializes in corporate, foreign investment and contract matters. She counsels on civil and commercial matters, financing, corporate reorganizations, corporate acquisitions and stability agreements with the State.

She assists in cases on corporate matters for the establishment and development of operations in Peru.

She is mentoring officer on The Women Lawyer's Interest Group of the International Bar Association. She is also Chairman of the Diversity Committee of the Peruvian-Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

Ursula was deputy editor for Chambers & Partners Latin America in London, being responsible for legal market research processes in Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Latin America. She was legal fellow at the Inter-American Investment Corporation of the IDB Group in Washington D.C.