

NYDIA GUEVARA

PARTNER

PROFILE

Nydia Guevara specializes on the design, structuring and negotiation of multiple financing transactions including public and private offerings of securities, project finance, syndicated loans, trade finance and derivatives. She also has an important experience in financial and capital markets regulatory matters and fintech advisory.

Her practice focuses on structuring financing deals, local and cross-border, mainly through capital markets operations, from the side of Peruvian and international banks in their role as arrangers or lenders, and from the side of companies as obligors or issuers.

She also assists different local and foreign entities such as banks, investment fund administrators, insurance companies, brokerage companies, clearing houses and fintechs in regulatory matters related to their activities in Peru.

Nydia was an associate at Shearman & Sterling LLP in New York, participating in financing and capital markets operations in Peru, Argentina, Colombia, Mexico and Brazil. She has been professor of Corporations at the Law School in Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú.
