

ARIANA LA ROSA

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Ariana La Rosa specializes in Economic Criminal Law and Corporate Compliance.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – Bachelor of Laws (2021)

Practice Areas

Economic Criminal
Criminal Litigation
Corporate Compliance

Memberships

Law & Society Civil Association

Languages

Spanish
English
French

She counsels on criminal contingencies to companies and their members within the framework of their corporate activities, as well as on the design of defense strategies in criminal proceedings.

Ariana also has experience in the implementation, review and improvement of Crime Prevention Models, Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing Prevention Systems (SPLAFT) and Anti-Bribery Management Systems in organizations from different economic sectors.

She was a fellow of the Winter Program at Universidad Diego Portales in Chile (2018) and obtained the first place of her Law promotion at Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú in 2021.

Ariana is an assistant professor at the Psychology and Law and Roman-Germanic System and Common Law courses at Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú.