

HANNA PAULINO

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Hanna Paulino specializes in criminal litigation with an emphasis on economic criminal law. Her expertise also includes corporate compliance.

Education

Universidad del Pacífico –
Bachelor of Laws (2023)

Practice Areas

Economic Criminal
Criminal Litigation
Corporate Compliance

Memberships

DERUP Editores Civil
Association– FORSETI Magazine
Criminal Clinic of Universidad del Pacífico

Languages

Spanish
English

Her practice focuses on corporate legal advice in the resolution of conflicts of a criminal and criminal procedural nature. She also provides preventive advice in the exercise of business activities.

Hanna graduated with honors from the Universidad del Pacífico School of Law obtaining first place in her class. In addition, she received the Robert Maes Honor Award for academic excellence for first place in the School of Law (2022). She was a scholar of the Banco de Credito del Peru.

She has served as a teaching assistant in the General Criminal Law and Criminal Oral Litigation courses at Universidad del Pacífico.

Her background includes a solid experience in corporate counseling. She won first place in the Thirty-third Business Consulting Competition of the Universidad del Pacífico. She is also co-founder of the civil association YAKUNAY, which was awarded the Prize for Extra-academic Excellence in the category of Social Service of the Universidad del Pacífico.