

THALIA VILLEGAS

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Thalia Villegas specializes in national and international commercial arbitration, investment arbitration and civil law.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú - Lawyer cum laude (2023)
BEAS PUCP Fellow
Remote Oral Advocacy Programme LATAM on Cross-examination - Delos Dispute Resolution (2023)
Remote Oral Advocacy Programme LATAM on Oral Arguments - Delos Dispute Resolution (2021)

Practice Areas

Arbitration

Membresías

Themis Civil Association of the PUCP Law School
Association for Conflict Resolution and more (ARC+) Arbitration Center & Dispute Board of Zambrano Association (2022-2023)

Languages

Spanish
English

Her practice focuses on the sponsorship of arbitration litigation and the preparation of legal opinions for the diagnosis of arbitration disputes.

The related industry sectors she has seen in her arbitration experience are mainly construction, mining, hydrocarbons, real estate and food industry. Thalia has experience in arbitrations administered by the ICC, ICSID, CCL, the PUCP Arbitration Center and AmCham.

In addition, Thalia is a teaching assistant at the PUCP for the Private International Law and Commercial and Investment Arbitration courses, as well as for the Investment Arbitration and Legal Skills courses at the Universidad del Pacífico. She is a regular speaker at various academic events on arbitration, and has published academic articles as editor and author.

She is an Extraordinary Associate of the Civil Association Themis of the PUCP Law School, having been General Editor of the Themis Legal Publishing House and member of the Board of Directors in 2018.