

SANTIAGO GARNICA

ASSOCIATE

PROFILE

Santiago Garnica specializes in labor law, with emphasis on litigation and dispute resolution.

Education

Pontificia Universidad Católica
del Perú – Bachelor of Laws

Practice Areas

Labor

Languages

Spanish
English
French

He focuses his professional practice on the design and implementation of procedural strategies with labor impact. He provides advice in labor, constitutional and administrative litigation proceedings. In addition, Santiago has experience in matters of privacy and protection of personal data, with emphasis on its implication in the employment relationship.

He is an extraordinary associate of the Content Committee of the Civil Association THĒMIS – Law Journal, responsible for managing academic research projects. Santiago was a student representative before the university assembly and a full member of the Court of Honor of the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (2018-2019).